Deng Yu-shian was a best snapshot of the spiritual and cultural ways of life in the 1930's Taiwan. His music fully encapsulates the social conditions and intellectuals' collective mental state of that time. Taoyuan City has orchestrated memorial concerts for Deng to a full house since 2003 under the leadership of Chung Chao-cheng and Robert Lu. This year, the memorial concert marks an international move to promote Deng—the sound and soul of Taiwan—to a broader audience. First-rate vocalists from Russia, Poland, China, and Taiwan will present different renditions of Deng's melodies in this afternoon feast of euphony.
