“Harmony in the Blossom Season” 2017 Chung Chao-Cheng Literary Awards Calls for Entry

2017 桃園 鍾肇政 文學獎

“Blossom Season” represents Taoyuan’s diverse ethnic communities, while “Harmony” refers to people sharing the same goals and ideas. The Chung Chao-Cheng Literary Awards seeks to connect such people in the literary blossom season, encouraging them to deepen the cultural meaning of Taiwanese identity through the writing of all beauty and sorrow about Taiwan.

Nationality of the R.O.C and the use of Mandarin Chinese are required. Topics of writing must be local landscape, folkway, geography, folklore and so forth of Taiwan (including Penghu, Kinmen, and Matsu), ideally about Taoyuan. Visit the website for more details.

Submission categories and deadlines: Modern verse, short story, reportage, children’s literature, and prose: Aug 20
Novel: Dec 30

2017 Minnan Festival In Taoyuan

"Half-year Festival," practiced on the 1st or 15th day of the 6th lunar month, is a Minnan custom from the traditional agricultural society. People make and eat dumplings while worshiping gods and ancestors for blessing. Taking place all around Taoyuan, Minnan Festival this year takes the now declining practice of Half-year Festival as the central theme, in addition to the folk culture of float parade and many other art forms. All are invited to the "Half-year Reunion."

60 Anniversary of National Taiwan College of Performing Arts
presents new Hakka opera

"The Journey to Peach Blossom Land"

The Opera tells the story of a young man Xue Qi-Long, in the early Qing Dynasty, risking his life voyaging from China to settle down in Taiwan. This was also how the Hakka ethnic groups came and established their communities in Taiwan. To thank god for all the blessings and celebrate great harvest, Hakka people invite a theatrical troupe to perform the "end-of-winter" opera. This show reminds us to keep the Hakka spirit of perseverance forever in our mind.
