TAOYUAN IRON ROSE FESTIVAL

桃園鐵玫瑰藝術節

"La vie est d'ailleurs" comes from the French poet, Arthur Rimbaud, meaning "Life is elsewhere". However, in the reality of daily routines, theater is the only escape.

2019 Taoyuan Iron Rose Festival features "La vie est d'ailleurs" and invites the teams at home and abroad to give the great performance. There are 39 activities in total to let iron roses blossom and give off fragrance everywhere.

Zhongli Police Department Japanese-style dormitory Grand Opening

The Japanese dormitories of Zhongli Police Department were built in about 1941 for the police and their family and were announced and registered as the historic buildings of Taoyuan City in 2012. They witnessed the Zhongli Incident and have the significant historical meaning and value in Taiwan's democracy. In the park, the humanistic stories and historical memories of the small figures in the great era compose the basic contents in the reuse of the historic buildings.
