Zhongli Arts Hall Concert hall
Renovation completion concer

After the half-year renovation, Music Hall, Zhongli Arts Hall will be open in January, 2020. Zhongli Arts Hall built in 1985 is 34 years old. It is one of the most representative professional exhibition and performance spaces in Taoyuan. In 2019, the city government actively promoted the upgrading project of the hall, applied for the funding of the “Forward-looking Infrastructure Development Program” from Ministry of Culture, and started the large improvement engineering again. The building after renovation will meet the needs of the art and cultural groups and the public more. To greet the historic moment of reopening, with the spirit of “stage of co-prosperity,” Zhongli Arts Hall will invite several outstanding performing groups in Taoyuan City to produce and present two celebration concerts of both Chinese and western music together, continuing to infuse the innovative energy to art and culture in Taoyuan with the new looks.

Zhongli Police Department

Japanese-style dormitory

Grand Opening

The Japanese dormitories of Zhongli Police Department were built in about 1941 for the police and their family and were announced and registered as the historic buildings of Taoyuan City in 2012. They witnessed the Zhongli Incident and have the significant historical meaning and value in Taiwan's democracy. In the park, the humanistic stories and historical memories of the small figures in the great era compose the basic contents in the reuse of the historic buildings.

Play with ink & brush—

Children's Calligraphy Art Experience Exhibition

From the traditional handwriting to the contemporary technology applications of multi-media, image, and VR, the children will experience the freedom and fun of “playing with” calligraphy through disassembling, re-organizing, and writing. The lines will inspire their aesthetic experience for Chinese characters. The exhibition presents the creative tools at the same time, brushes and ink in various styles, so that the children will experience the calligraphy art in a casual and lively way and understand its culture and contents.
