Sianguang 2nd Village Greeting Chinese New Year in the Military dependents' village

Chinese New Year is one of the most important festivals in the Military dependents' village. Back in the day during the eve of Chinese New Year, families would be busy pasting Spring Festival Couplets and making cured meat and sausages. This would lead all citizens in Taiyuan to experience the unique cultural atmosphere of the Military dependents' village. The "Greeting Chinese New Year" is organized in Sianguang 2nd Village and events include Spring Festival Couplet writing, alternate reality game, local market, and performance program. You are invited to come and celebrate the coming of Chinese New Year.
