Joint Exhibitions of “Arts and Life” of CONDE and Joint Individual Exhibition of Lin Yao-Tang and Vanco Chang

In the 1980s, Taiwan was in its economic booming era. At that time, Lin Yao-Tang and Vanco Chang came to teach at Fu-Hsin Trade & Arts School. As the only arts high school in Taiwan, Fu-Hsin attracted all young students dedicated to arts from all over Taiwan. Curated by Qiu Wanxin, Master Lin Yao-Tang and Vanco Chang exhibit their works under the theme of beautiful daily life. A total of 12 of their students were invited to take a part in this joint contemporary design exhibition entitled “Arts and Life” with the expectation of instilling an elegant review of the old days in this busy 21st Century.
