2020
CREATIVE EXPO TAOYUAN

RUNNING
TAOYUAN

"An interdisciplinary and original local expo that integrates the power of design."

The 2020 Creative Expo Taoyuan is presented at the historical Matsu New Village and centers around the promotional theme "RUNNING TAOYUAN." Through the imagery of "running," the event instills the idea of progress through Creative Expo Taoyuan, suggesting movement while hinting to the celebratory atmosphere of festivity. In Chinese, Taoyuan also entails the meaning of peach blossom, which symbolizes abundance and vibrancy, expressing the wish for Taoyuan's prosperity through design and creativity.

The 7th Taoyuan Film Festival

The 7th Taoyuan Film Festival will take place from October 9 to 23, 2020. This year's Festival will focus on six major focal themes, featuring approximately 70 films and over 40 films premiered in Taiwan. Over 120 screenings will be available at Shin Kong Cinemas, Ambassador Theatre, in89 Cinemax, SBC International Cinemas and Taoyuan Art Cinema II.

In highlighting Taoyuan's urban characteristics as a model of Taiwan's "Ethnic Harmony of Five Groups" (Hoklo people, Hakkas, Mainlander, Indigenous people, and New Immigrant), we have invited Ms. Лариса Бакурова (Larisa BAKUROVA) to be the endorser of the Taoyuan Film Festival. Ms. BAKUROVA has also been known for her devotion in training the National Gymnastics Team resided in Taoyuan. With her endorsement, we hope to associate film and sport with Taoyuan, making the Festival a wonderful event.

Meanwhile, the Festival also features "Baseball Fever" paying a tribute to Taiwanese baseball players of all levels. In honoring Taoyuan being a baseball city, the special film/music concert will be held before the game at the Taoyuan International Baseball Stadium performed by Fire EX and Rakuten Monkeys.

With an exciting program of screenings and a series of events, the Taoyuan Film Festival is expected to attract more than 30,000 visitors. Hereby, we sincerely welcome all Taoyuan residents, movie lovers and movie buffs to celebrate with us at Taoyuan. We look forward to joining hands with you on stage.

Possibilities of Watercolor, the 2020 Taoyuan Watercolor Exhibition

The Cultural Affairs Bureau of the Taoyuan City Government concerns about the innovation and development of watercolor arts filed and aims to cultivate the next generation watercolor elite in Taiwan. In 2018, "Possibilities of Watercolor, the 2018 Taoyuan Watercolor Exhibition" was first organized and the event has been well recognized. This year, this exhibition again was planned by inviting 37 domestic artists to create with the watercolor medium. Based on exhibition concepts of new format, new thinking, and new concept, the exhibition focuses on contemporary prospective and experiment and academic research with the attempt to transcend traditional boundaries of watercolor expression and create new possibilities for watercolor arts.

The 2020 Taoyuan Military Dependents' Villages Festival— New Wave of Military Dependents' Villages

It is the 20th Anniversary of the Taoyuan Military Dependents' Villages Festival and this year and we have been thinking of "how to bring military dependents' village culture to the next generation" with the aim of creating generational resonance as well as promoting events that preserve cultural contents of the military dependents' villages. Under the five sub-themes of "theater," "exhibition," "dining" "film," and "performing arts," we will bring people closer to the military dependents' village to feel the new wave of the old soul and create a new life for the old one.
