2021 TAOYUAN CONTEMPORARY ART & COMPILATION OF CLASSICS IN TMOFA

Promotion of art studies and collection, acquisition, archiving, and preservation of artworks have been important missions of Taoyuan Museum of Fine Arts (TMOFA). Activation of art collection, publicity, and construction of local art context, at the same time, are one of core values of TMOFA. Hence, TMOFA in 2019 and 2020 initiated the projects of “Archive Theories” and “Ecosystem Study of Taoyuan Contemporary Art” respectively. Through studies in Taoyuan contemporary art and reviews of archived resources, we expect to motivate studies of art history from Taoyuan’s perspective and construction of art knowledge, expand local art interpretation and horizon, and share phased archives and research energy of TMOFA.

黃哲夫 2021 畫展

Behind the Surface

Huang Che Fu Art Exhibiton

The artist, Huang Che-Fu, was raised in a scholar's family in Daxi, Taoyuan. He was well-educated with enriched cultural talent and artistic abilities. In his painting field, he followed all the traditional disciplines and persisted to lay his good foundation in calligraphy and later in color ink painting. After had been devoted to ink painting for many years, he began his new attempts in semi-abstract and abstract painting when he studied at National Taiwan Normal University. Based on his profound foundation in ink painting and Zen, his painting is subtle to go behind the surface. In his seventies, he continues pursuing painting skills and realm with great passions for the meaning of Zen. His paintings are the accumulation of efforts for several decades as well as the progress of mind set. We invite you to appreciate his masterpieces, getting rid of all format restrictions.
