Grand Opening for the Lunar June 24 Story House

The Lunar June 24 Story House was originally the warehouse of Daxi Farmers' Association built during Japanese colonial ruling in Taiwan (about the 1940s), a special building that witnessed food policies before and after World War II. In 2017, the building was listed as Taoyuan's historical architecture and after restoration in 2021, the building was reused as the Lunar June 24 Story House for the promotion of "Birthday Celebration of the Daxi Po-Gi Temple Holy Emperor Guan" and the sharing space of cultural conservation, heritage, education, and experiential learning of Daxi Shetou. Both static exhibition and dynamic activities are planned for its commencement on September 12, 2021.
