Playing with Space

The special exhibition of “Playing with Space” focuses on vertical walls and pillars and horizontal ceilings and floors that are often ignored in exhibition venues. With large-scale installation works of artists including Wang Te-Yu, Lin Yu-Cheng, Yu-Wen Chiu, and Kao Tak-Leong, the specific exhibition venue was rebuilt, changed and transformed to let kids get to know the site in a creative way. Sensual feelings of body senses via sight, hearing and touch stimulate kids’ curiosity and careful observation towards the space and enable them to develop their spatial awareness or explore in rediscovery. At the same time, all visitors are invited to think out of the box and let their spatial imagination fly.
