Cloud Gate Dance Theatre of Taiwan CHENG Tsung-lung's 13 Tongues

CHENG Tsung-lung, the Artistic Director of Cloud Gate, grew up selling slippers on the side of the road. For 13 Tongues, CHENG merges his memories of the sights, sounds and vitality of Bangka, Taipei's oldest district, with the fantastical tales of the storyteller Thirteen Tongues. A mesmerizing world on the border of human and spirits is thus created, incorporating folk dance, religious rites, Japanese nakashi music and Taoist chanting into a contemporary expression.

The special exhibition of “Playing with Space” focuses on vertical walls and pillars and horizontal ceilings and floors that are often ignored in exhibition venues. With large-scale installation works of artists including Wang Te-Yu, Lin Yu-Cheng, Yu-Wen Chiu, and Kao Tak-Leong, the specific exhibition venue was rebuilt, changed and transformed to let kids get to know the site in a creative way. Sensual feelings of body senses via sight, hearing and touch stimulate kids’ curiosity and careful observation towards the space and enable them to develop their spatial awareness or explore in rediscovery. At the same time, all visitors are invited to think out of the box and let their spatial imagination fly.
