[Insert the Title of the Abstract Here, Making Sure That It Is No Longer Than 40 Words With Appropriate Capitalization]

First Author[1] (Presenter), Second Author[2], Third Author[3]
[1] Affiliation of First Author, Department, University, City, Country
[2] Affiliation of Second Author, Department, University, City, Country
[3] Affiliation of Third Author, Department, University, City, Country

Abstract [Maximum 300 Words]

Introduction and Purpose/Objectives: [Briefly introduce the background and state the purpose or objectives of the study/research.]

Approaches/Methods: [Describe the methods or approaches used in the study/research, including specific techniques, populations, tools, or procedures.]

Results/Findings: [Summarize the study/research results or findings, including data and critical outcomes.]

Discussion/Implication: [Discuss the implications of the results/findings and how they may affect future research, practice, policy, etc.]

Keywords: Keyword 1, Keyword 2, Keyword 3, Keyword 4, Keyword 5.

Short Bio of the Presenter (Maximum 200 Words)
[Provide a brief biography of the presenter, including current position, areas of research interest, key achievements, and any relevant publications or contributions to the field.]

Contact Information: [contact Email]
[Website, SNS URL, Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram etc if applicable]

_____

Note: The short bio should be a brief narrative highlighting the presenter's academic and professional background, emphasizing areas relevant to the abstract and the broader context of the conference or journal. Keep it within the 200-word limit to ensure conciseness and relevance.